

Lunchtime Concerts come to St John's

Building on St Johns' fine reputation for good music, we are holding a monthly series of lunchtime concerts which will take place on the second Friday of the month.

The next concert will take place on Friday 8th November from 12.15pm-1.00pm. John Campbell and David Sparrow present a varied programme of music spanning the centuries for voice, harpsichord and organ

Entry will be free (retiring collection towards costs) and a sandwich lunch will be available to buy in church from 11.45am, or bring your own lunch to eat during the concert.

Please put the date in your diary and invite your friends, relatives and neighbours.
